

Contents

Preface .....	vii
List of Contributors .....	xi

Part I: Introduction

1. Regulating Deviance: The Redirection of Criminalisation and the Futures of Criminal Law ..... 3
Bernadette McSherry, Alan Norrie and Simon Bronitt

Part II: Shifts in Criminal Justice Policies

2. Citizenship, Authoritarianism and the Changing Shape of the Criminal Law ..... 13
Alan Norrie
3. Fixing the Future? The Pre-emptive Turn in Criminal Justice ..... 35
Lucia Zedner
4. 'Victim-Driven' Criminalisation? Some Recent Trends in the Expansion of the Criminal Law..... 59
Leslie Sebba

Part III: The Quest for Security

5. Criminal Law, Human Rights and Preventative Justice ..... 87
Andrew Ashworth
6. The Theory of Vulnerable Autonomy and the Legitimacy of Civil Preventative Orders ..... 109
Peter Ramsay
7. Expanding the Boundaries of Inchoate Crimes: The Growing Reliance on Preparatory Offences ..... 141
Bernadette McSherry
8. Social Science and Criminal Law Reform: Beyond Mere Opinion Polling and Penal Populism ..... 165
Mark Nolan

Part IV: The Scope and Justification of Sexual Offences

9. Criminal Law and Private Spaces: Regulating Homosexual Acts in Singapore..... 185
Kumaralingam Amirthalingam
10. Moral Uncertainties of Rape and Murder: Problems at the Core of Criminal Law Theory ..... 213
Ngairé Naffine

Part V: Codification and The Liberal Promise

11. Criminal Codes in the 21st Century: The Paradox of the Liberal Promise ..... 235
Simon Bronitt and Miriam Gani
12. Faultlines Between Guilt and Punishment in Australia's Model Criminal Code..... 261
Ian Leader-Elliott
- Index*..... 295