

Contents

List of Contributors	xi
Introduction ANDREW GOLDSMITH AND JAMES SHEPTYCKI	1
SECTION ONE: SETTING THE SCENE(S)	29
1. The Constabulary Ethic and the Transnational Condition JAMES SHEPTYCKI	31
2. Making Sense of Transnational Police-Building: Foreign Assistance in Colombian Policing ANDREW GOLDSMITH, MARIA VICTORIA LLORENTE AND ANGELA RIVAS	73
3. Locating the Public Interest in Transnational Policing IAN LOADER AND NEIL WALKER	111
SECTION TWO: AGENDAS FOR POLICE REFORM	147
4. Obstacles on the Road to Peace and Justice: The Role of Civilian Police in Peacekeeping RICK LINDEN, DAVID LAST AND CHRISTOPHER MURPHY	149
5. Implementing Police Reforms: The Role of the Transnational Policy Community OTWIN MARENIN	177
6. Fostering a Dependency Culture: The Commodification of Community Policing in a Global Marketplace GRAHAM ELLISON	203
7. The Cart before the Horse: Community Oriented versus Professional Models of International Police Reform CHRISTOPHER MURPHY	243
8. Managerialist Pathways Toward ‘Good Policing’: Observations from South Africa ELRENA VAN DER SPUY	263

SECTION THREE: REGIONAL AND NATIONAL EXPERIENCES	293
9. Police Building in the Southwest Pacific – New Directions in Australian Regional Policing	295
ABBY MCLEOD AND SINCLAIR DINNEN
10. Crafting the Governance of Security in Argentina: Engaging with Global Trends	329
JENNIFER WOOD AND ENRIQUE FONT
11. Police Use of Force and Transnational Review Processes: The Venezuelan Police under the Inter-American System	357
CHRISTOPHER BIRKBECK
Concluding Remarks	389
ANDREW GOLDSMITH AND JAMES SHEPTYCKI
Index	399