

Contents

Biographical Notes	vii
--------------------	-----

Introduction	Law's Garden of Forking Paths by Anne Wagner, Tracey Summerfield and Farid Samir Benavides Vanegas	1
---------------------	--	---

Part I: The Interpretation and Pertinence of Law in the Global Age		17
1	Refugee Meanings by Ian Duncanson	19
2	Citizens, Immigrants, Anarchists and Other Animals by Annabelle Mooney	35
3	The Dialogistic Nature of Brazil's Arbitration Law 9.307/96 by Celina Frade	57
4	Constitutional 'Communarchy': A Constitution with Chinese Characteristics by Deborah Cao	71
5	The Quest for Certainty in Recent US Constitutional Scholarship: Original Intent and the Practice of Constitutional 'Creativity' by Frederick P Lewis	85
6	Celebrity as Authority in Law by John Brigham and Jill Meyers	95
7	Writing Around the Censor: Gypsies, Thieves, and Rebels in Early Modern Spain by William Pencak	113

Part II: Cultural and Symbolic Analyses of the Law in Context		125
8	Subversion in the World of Order: Legal Deconstruction as a Rhetorical Practice by Joanna Jemielniak	127
9	The Substantive Issue and the Rhetoric of the Abortion Debate in Ireland by Sophie Cacciaguidi-Fahy	141
10	Wealth of Terms—Scarcity of Justice? Term Formation in Statutory Definitions by Richard Foley	165
11	Enduring Signs and Obscure Meanings: Contested Coats of Arms in Australian Jurisdictions by Richard Mohr	179
12	Critical Race Reggae: The Sound of a Narrative by Aaron RS Lorenz	197
13	Cromer's Olde England and the Dome's New Britain: Two Same/Different Imageries of the Law of Britain's Empire by Ronnie Lippens	213

14 Law in the Age of Images: The Challenge of Visual Literacy
 by Christina O Spiesel, Richard K Sherwin, Neal Feigenson 231

Selected Bibliography 257

Index 267