

Table of Contents

Part I: Introduction

1. Volkmar Gessner, Towards a Theoretical Framework for Contractual Certainty in Global Trade

Part II: Empirical Studies

2. Barak Richman, Ethnic Networks, Extra-legal Certainty and Globalisation: Peering into the Diamond Industry
3. Wioletta Konradi, The Role of Lex Mercatoria in Supporting Globalised Transactions: An Empirical Insight into the Governance Structure of the Timber Industry
4. Thomas Dietz and Holger Nieswandt, The Emergence of Transnational Cooperation in the Software Industry
5. Fabian P Sosa, Cross-Border Dispute Resolution from the Perspective of Mid-sized Law Firms: The Example of International Commercial Arbitration
6. John Flood and Eleni Skordaki, Structuring Transactions: The Case of Real Estate Finance

Part III: Debates and New Approaches

7. Volkmar Gessner, Theories of Change—The Governance of Business Transactions in Globalising Economies
8. Galf-Peter Calliess, Transnational Civil Regimes: Economic Globalisation and the Evolution of Commercial Law
9. Gillian K Hadfield, The Public and the Private in the Provision of Law for Global Transactions
10. Jörg Freiling, Institutional Designs in International Transactions—an Evolutionary Economics Perspective

x Table of Contents

11. Bärbel R Dorbeck-Jung, Global Trade: Changes in the Conceptualisation of Legal Certainty?
12. Wolf Heydebrand, Contractual Certainty versus Efficiency: The Historical and Institutional Context of Global Trade