

THE LEGACIES OF INSTITUTIONALISATION

This is the first collection to examine the legal dynamics of deinstitutionalisation. It considers the extent to which some contemporary laws, policies and practices affecting people with disabilities are moving towards the promised end point of enhanced social and political participation in the community, while others may instead reinstate, continue or legitimate historical practices associated with this population's institutionalisation. Bringing together 20 contributors from the UK, Canada, Australia, Spain and Indonesia, the book speaks to overarching themes of segregation and inequality, interlocking forms of oppression and rights-based advancements in law, policy and practice. Ultimately this collection brings forth the possibilities, limits and contradictions in the roles of law and policy in processes of institutionalisation and deinstitutionalisation, and directs us towards a more nuanced and sustained scholarly and political engagement with these issues.

Acknowledgements

THIS MANUSCRIPT EMERGED from a workshop that was held in June 2018 at the Oñati International Institute for the Sociology of Law in the Basque Country. Claire Spivakovsky, Linda Steele and Penelope Weller would like to thank the Institute for choosing to support our workshop and for enabling us to run it at the Institute's beautiful premises. In particular, we would like to thank Malen Gordoia for her outstanding work in supporting and organising our group during our workshop and Leire Kortabarria for her guidance in the development of this edited collection.

Our workshop at the Institute would not have been possible without the excellent contributions to the initial application by both Fleur Beaupert and Melania Moscoso Pérez, including Melania's willingness to connect us with other scholars located in Spain. We are also grateful to all of those who contributed papers to the workshop, both in person and by skype. Your enthusiasm enlivened our discussion and enabled us to develop a shared vision for this collection. Thank you. The workshop attendees were: Katie Aubrecht (skype), Roxanne Mykitiuk, Eduardo Díaz Velázquez, Ameil Joseph, Leanne Dowse, Sheila Wildeman, Claire Spivakovsky, Elvira Pértega Andía, Linda Steele, Shelley Bielefeld and Fleur Beaupert (skype), Melania Moscoso Pérez and R. Lucas Platero, Salvador Cayuela Sánchez, Isabel Karpin and Karen O'Connell, Dio Ashar Wicaksana, Peter Bartlett, Liz Brosnan, Lucy Series, Jill Stavert and Penelope Weller.

Linda Steele and Penelope Weller would like to thank Claire Spivakovsky for leading the development of the book, including supporting the copy-editing process.

Finally, we would like to thank Hart Publishing, in particular, Rosamund Jubber and Rosemarie Mearns for their support and guidance bringing this edited collection project to fruition.
