

Contents

Acknowledgements	v
Contributors	ix

INTRODUCTION

1. Human Rights and Legal Pluralism: Four Research Agendas..... 1
Giselle Corradi

PART ONE: NORMATIVE APPROACHES

2. Legal Pluralism as a Human Right and/or as a Human Rights Violation..... 23
Eva Brems
3. Legal Pluralism and International Human Rights Law: A Multifaceted Relationship 41
Ellen Desmet
4. Human Rights, Cultural Diversity and Legal Pluralism from an Indigenous Perspective: The Awas Tingni Case 55
Felipe Gómez Isa
5. Taking the Challenge of Legal Pluralism for Human Rights Seriously 77
André Hoekema
6. Indigenous Justice and the Right to a Fair Trial 97
Giselle Corradi

PART TWO: EMPIRICAL APPROACHES

7. Gender, Human Rights and Legal Pluralities in Southern Africa: A Matter of Context and Power..... 119
Anne Hellum and Rosalie Katsande
8. Women's Rights and Transnational Aid Programmes in Niger: The Conundrums and Possibilities of Neoliberalism and Legal Pluralism 137
Kari B Henquinet

viii Contents

9. Legal Borderlands: Ghanaian Human Rights Advocacy between the Layers of Law	157
Catherine Buerger
10. Insiders' Perspectives on Muslim Divorce in Belgium: A Women's Rights Analysis	175
Kim Lecoyer
11. Through the Looking Glass of Diversity: The Right to Family Life from the Perspectives of Transnational Families in Belgium.....	203
Barbara Truffin and Olivier Struelens
References	223
Index	249