

Contents

1. Introduction .....	1
Saskia Hufnagel and Carole McCartney
Part I: The Concept of Trust in International Police Cooperation
2. Establishing Trust Despite the Risk? An Analysis of the Need for Trust in Police Cooperation .....	13
Ludo Block
3. Police Cooperation in Europe, China and Australia: Does Trust Depend on the Political System? .....	31
Saskia Hufnagel
4. International Policing Missions: Establishing Trustworthy Policing in Low-trust Environments .....	51
Andrew Goldsmith and Vandra Harris
Part II: Trust and International Cooperation Agencies
5. Trusted Travellers: Managing Mobility in Challenging Times .....	77
Monica den Boer
6. Brand Interpol .....	97
James Sheptycki
7. The Evolving Role of Europol in the Fight Against Serious Crime: Current Challenges and Future Prospects.....	125
Celine Cocq and Francesca Galli
8. Building Trust and More: The Importance of Police Cooperation Networks in the European Union.....	149
Toine Spapens
9. Trust and the International Exchange of Forensic Information .....	169
Carole McCartney
Part III: Case Studies of Trust in International Cooperation
10. Law Enforcement Cooperation between New Zealand and the United States: Serving the Internet ‘Pirate’ Kim Dotcom Up on a ‘Silver Platter’? .....	193
Neil Boister

vi Contents

11. Transnational Policing and Its Contexts: Flexibility and (Dis)trust.....	221
Chantal Perras
12. Intelligence-led Use of International Forensic Exchange Channels.....	241
Denise Sulca
Index .....	255