

Contents

List of Contributors	xi
-----------------------------	----

PART I—POLITICAL TRENDS AND CRIMINAL POLICY

1. Introduction	1
Penny Green and Andrew Rutherford
2. Crime Control, American Style: From Social Welfare to Social Control	15
Katherine Beckett and Bruce Western
3. An Elephant on the Doorstep: Criminal Policy without Crime in New Labour's Britain	33
Andrew Rutherford
4. Youth Justice? Arguments for Holism and Democracy in Responses to Crime	63
Pat Carlen

PART II—THE MANAGERIAL AGENDA

5. Policy and Practice in Modern Britain: Influences, Outcomes and Civil Society	79
David Faulkner
6. Back to the "Iron Cage": The Example of the Dutch Probation Service	91
René van Swaaningen
7. New Managerialism, Credibility and the Sanitisation of Criminal Justice	109
Julia Fionda

PART III—EXCLUSION IN THE NEW EUROPE

8. Foreigners, Migration, Immigration and the Development of Criminal Justice in Europe 131
Hans-Jörg Albrecht
9. The Other in the New Europe: Migrations, Deviance, Social Control 151
Dario Melossi
10. On the Globalisation of Control: Towards an Integrated Surveillance System in Europe 167
Thomas Mathiesen

PART IV—DEMOCRACY, STATE POWER AND GLOBALISATION

11. Criminal Justice and Democratisation in Turkey: The Paradox of Transition 195
Penny Green
12. “Spain is Different”: Beyond an Invisible Criminal Policy? 221
Gema Varona
13. Three Trends into the New Millennium: The Managerial, the Populist and the Road Towards Global Justice 243
Sebastian Scheerer
- Bibliography* 261
- Index* 285