Contents

List of Contributors
	PART I—POLITICAL TRENDS AND CRIMINAL POLICY
1.	Introduction Penny Green and Andrew Rutherford	1
2.	Crime Control, American Style: From Social Welfare to Social Control Katherine Beckett and Bruce Western	15
3.	An Elephant on the Doorstep: Criminal Policy without Crime in New Labour's Britain Andrew Rutherford	33
4.	Youth Justice? Arguments for Holism and Democracy in Responses to Crime Pat Carlen	63
	PART II—THE MANAGERIAL AGENDA
5.	Policy and Practice in Modern Britain: Influences, Outcomes and Civil Society  David Faulkner	79
6.	Back to the "Iron Cage": The Example of the Dutch Probation Service René van Swaaningen	91
7.	New Managerialism, Credibility and the Sanitisation of Criminal Justice Julia Fionda	109

x Contents

PART III—EXCLUSION IN THE NEW EUROPE

8.	Foreigners, Migration, Immigration and the Development of Criminal Justice in Europe  Hans-Jörg Albrecht	131
9.	The Other in the New Europe: Migrations, Deviance, Social Control Dario Melossi	151
10.	On the Globalisation of Control: Towards an Integrated Surveillance System in Europe Thomas Mathiesen	167
	PART IV—DEMOCRACY, STATE POWER AND GLOBALISATION
11.	Criminal Justice and Democratisation in Turkey: The Paradox of Transition  Penny Green	195
12.	"Spain is Different": Beyond an Invisible Criminal Policy?  Gema Varona	221
13.	Three Trends into the New Millennium: The Managerial, the Populist and the Road Towards Global Justice Sebastian Scheerer	243
Bib	Bibliography
Ind	ndex	